

SDP Progressive Dinner Run 2010

Saturday, August 21st

What is a Progressive Dinner Run? Well, it's like this: We all meet at a member's house, and we chill out and chow down on appetizers and shoot the breeze for a couple hours. Then we all jump in our cars and head for another member's house for, you guessed it, more food. Only this time, it's full on dinner. After we've finished eating dinner and we're good and rested, we jump in our cars again. This final leg takes us to yet another member's home where we enjoy dessert, more liquid refreshments and great company until the wee hours or as long as you can stay awake.

On the following pages you'll find complete directions to all 3 residences. You don't want to miss this delectable Detomaso driving diversion. Please RSVP ASAP to mikebecker@cox.net. P.S. If you can't make it for all 3 stops, but you want to participate in just 1 or 2, that's just fine. Just let us know in your RSVP response.

Just in case you prefer to do your own maps, or if you wish to use your onboard GPS, here is a summary of the addresses:

1st Stop: 2:00 pm - (Ryniker Home) 8766 Betelgeuse Way San Diego, CA 92126
